First Baseball Gun is Fired

The K. A. C.'s journeyed over to Kilauea last Sunday and captured the scalp of the latter by the score of 5 to 3, thus going on record as firing the first baseball gun in this season's series. The game, of course was simply for practice, but the fans were treated to classy ball, since both teams included players who had seen active service in league teams last year. It was a hotly contested game and the close scores indicate what can be expected of these teams with a little practice. Henry Sheldon umpired the game and did it in a professional manner. The line-ups were as follows:

The Line-ups.

Kilauea	K. A. C.'s
Joe Souza c.	John Soares c.
A. Ropozo p.	Lui Alameda p.
Jocinth 1 b.	Gomes 1 b.
J. Pochecho 2 b.	Joaquin Silva 2 b.
T. Pochecho 3 b.	W. Rodrigues 3 b.
M. Jocinth s. s.	W. Lovell s. s.
Wood r. f.	Take r. f.
G. Akana c. f.	Ebbinger c. f.
J. Akana l. f.	Aruda l. f.

A return game will be played off between these two teams next Sunday, on the Kapaa diamond.

Track And Field Meet

That Lihue is to have another and bigger track and field meet this year, has been definitely decided upon, and that it is not to be connected with the A. A. U., has also been practically decided upon. One of the chief directors of the affair stated to a reporter yesterday that it would most likely be open to all comers, but that the details were not yet complete.

Lihue Holds Its Meeting

The Lihue baseball club held its annual meeting in THE GARDEN ISLAND building last night and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Charlie Rice, Manager; Arthur Rice, Captain; Harold Morgan, Secretary; Wm. H. Rice Jr., Treasurer. In accordance with the new rule allowing each team to sign up as many as thirty members, the following men will probably represent the official list of the Lihue league:

Charlie Rice, Benjamin Puaoi, Arthur Rice, Harold Morgan, K. C. Hopper, Wm. Puaoi, Wm. Makanani, Gabriel Wela, John Malina, Willie Oponui, Johnny Fernandes, Charlie Hosea, Henry Malina, Leslie Wishard, Willie Coney, John Makanani, John Hoao, Oga-wa, Terremoto, Doi, Downey, Ben Kamaka, Henry Waiiau, Allen Wilcox, Antone Souza and three Filipinos.

C. W. Spitz was a returning floral parade enthusiast Saturday morning.

K. C. Hopper, returned from a business trip to Honolulu Saturday.

Mr. Hottle, representing the von-Hamm-Young Co., returned to Honolulu Saturday.

E. E. Mahlum, manager of Hofgaard & Co., Waimea, came in from Honolulu on the Mauna Loa.

W. T. Frost, Phillips & Co.'s enterprising salesman, will return to Honolulu to day's Hall.

Minstrel Show Pleases Crowd

The Hen Wise Minstrel Show, under the management of Fernandes and Adams delighted the local show habitués for three nights last week. The program of songs, dances and witty sayings was pleasingly interspersed with some of the best moving pictures ever displayed in the local play house.

It has seldom if ever been Lihue's good fortune to enjoy such minstrel talent and the attendance at each performance clearly indicated the appreciation of this very clever bunch of performers.

The very clever leading man was nearly a whole show within himself while every assistant amounted to about the same thing, each doing her or his part in a manner which brought forth a thunderous applause. They left for Makaweli this morning where they show tonight. They are booked for Makaweli for a two night engagement after which they leave direct for Waimea. Adams may return shortly with another up-to-date troupe which is at present filling a popular Honolulu theatre.

The troupe is known as members of the Trans Pacific tour of the Wise-Milton Co., and hold the record for having drawn the largest house in the history of the Bijou theater. They are making a farewell tour of the Island, after which they will return to the coast.

The troupe is composed of nine performers, each of whom is past-master grand in the art of vaudeville specialties, being able to crowd more genuine, mistrel features into the space of an hour and a half, than is usually found in troupes of a larger number. The members are Bertha Grand, Mable de Herd, Ethel Williams, Lillian Gillem, Punch Jones, Charlie Williams, Allie Gillen and Billy Ledward.

2 More Bowling Allies

News has been received from a highly reliable source to the effect that Waimea and Makaweli are each in the market for a bowling alley. This is interesting news and if true, means that Kauai will be provided with an opportunity to form a series from which men can be trained for all future contests, thus increasing interest in one of the most popular sports in the islands.

At the present time, all other sports have been side-tracked to allow bowling to occupy the stage. Maser and Wolters, our local experts are matched for a roll of twenty games with two Honoluluans, after which a contest will be arranged between the Y. M. C. A. and our home team.

The contest between Wolters and Maser and the two from Honolulu is to consist of twenty games, all of which will be pulled off during one evening.

The Directors to Meet

The directors of the various baseball leagues of Kauai are hereby notified that a directors meeting will be held at the Fairview Hotel Saturday evening, March 2, 1912. Important business will come before the board and it is earnestly requested that all directors be present. By order of the President.

DR. GLAISYER,
Secretary.

Proprietor J. I. Silva of the Ele-ele Store, was doing court business in Lihue last week.
